Give my office a call so we can find a time to get together when you are in Juneau during session.

members and officials, fishing education advocates from Cordova, Kodiak, and City of Kodiak Mayor Pat Branson. Were students from Kachemak Bay’s Russian communities, Homer Electric Association and Cordova Electric Cooperative board.

It was great visiting with several Senate District P residents during their stops in the Capitol the past few weeks. Included in the list.

Constituents in the Capitol

You can find out more about the census online at:

2022 elections.

The 2020 United States Census got underway in Toksook Bay, Alaska on Tuesday January 21st, and more counting is ahead. As part of its efforts, the U.S. Census Bureau will ask 10 questions regarding the number of people residing at your address, along with names, genders, ages and the like. It takes roughly 10 minutes to answer the survey, and all information is confidential.

The 2020 Census

You can get more information on the program online at:

https://census.gov

The State of Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend Division.

Pick.Click.Give is run by the Alaska Community Foundation in partnership with the Rasmuson Foundation, the Foraker Group, and opportunity to donate all, or part of your PFD in $25 increments to the nonprofit organization of your choice.

Several local nonprofit organizations are participating in the Pick.Click.Give. program again this year. The program offers you the Pick.Click.Give.

The PFD Division's website can be reached at:

www.pfd.alaska.gov

Tuesday, March 31st deadline. If you have access to the internet, you will find online filing for the dividend to be quick and easy.

If you are interested in taking part in the next raffle, you will want to make sure to get your PFD application completed before the remaining 85% of the raffle's revenue will grow the fund for future years' prize money.

fund. For the raffle drawing, first prize is 8% of the raffle fund; second prize is 4%; third prize is 2%; fourth prize is 1%; and the allocated to supplemental education grants, 25% is allocated to the Education Endowment Fund, and 25% is allocated to the raffle

In the first year of its existence, the raffle had 8,698 contributions, totaling $869,800. As prescribed by law, 50% of this revenue is more than $652,000 was raised for educational opportunities.

The PFD Education Raffle allows Alaskans to donate money from their dividend to public education in $100 increments per entry.

The drawing in the first-ever PFD Education Raffle was held on Tuesday, January 28th in Juneau. Four Alaskans won prizes and

(PFD) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to

Among the matters still ahead of us are proposals the governor introduced during his Monday, January 27th State of the State

(2020) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to address. One of these new ideas is the creation of a statewide lottery. Another proposal would allow Permanent Fund Dividend legislation. The PFD Education Raffle is a unique opportunity to support public education in Alaska. Each entry provides a chance to win prizes, including $100,000 in cash, scholarships, and more. Since its introduction in 2020, the raffle has raised more than $652,000 for educational opportunities.

The drawing in the first-ever PFD Education Raffle was held on Tuesday, January 28th in Juneau. Four Alaskans won prizes and

The PFD Education Raffle allows Alaskans to donate money from their dividend to public education in $100 increments per entry. The raffle was created to provide additional funding for public education in Alaska, and since its introduction in 2020, it has raised more than $652,000 for educational opportunities.

The drawing in the first-ever PFD Education Raffle was held on Tuesday, January 28th in Juneau. Four Alaskans won prizes and

(PFD) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to

(l츰) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to address. One of these new ideas is the creation of a statewide lottery. Another proposal would allow Permanent Fund Dividend

Among the matters still ahead of us are proposals the governor introduced during his Monday, January 27th State of the State

(2020) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to address. One of these new ideas is the creation of a statewide lottery. Another proposal would allow Permanent Fund Dividend

Among the matters still ahead of us are proposals the governor introduced during his Monday, January 27th State of the State

(2020) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to address. One of these new ideas is the creation of a statewide lottery. Another proposal would allow Permanent Fund Dividend

Among the matters still ahead of us are proposals the governor introduced during his Monday, January 27th State of the State

(2020) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to address. One of these new ideas is the creation of a statewide lottery. Another proposal would allow Permanent Fund Dividend

Among the matters still ahead of us are proposals the governor introduced during his Monday, January 27th State of the State

(2020) recipients to claim state land in place of dividends. The governor also wants to establish a state inspector general position to address. One of these new ideas is the creation of a statewide lottery. Another proposal would allow Permanent Fund Dividend

Among the matters still ahead of us are proposals the governor introduced during his Monday, January 27th State of the State