ignore. I am eager to learn UAA's plan moving forward, including assisting the 350 last. Our children are our future and their education is vital to their success in life. With DEED has expressly acknowledged the lack of trust this has caused between the school, (materials.)

work with DEED to secure state license approval for all students affected by these on a case by case basis since each students needs are individual.  UAA is committed to this from ever happening again.  Impacted are the "initial licensure" programs for Education.  Dr. Jim Johnsen, President of University of Alaska, and James Fields, Chair of

will be giving an overview of the Alaska Railroad, including its history, their business lines, Facilities Services Project Manager Chris Hodgin.

was used to monitor it, and how our roads and infrastructure held up. State Seismologist traffic diversion plan for the Glenn). This report is intended to address the partial and full for Commissioner-Designee John MacKinnon, Department of Transportation and Public

The Committee will hear the legislation on Wednesday, February 5 for the first time. My

The first in the series of the Governor's suite of legislation will be Senate Bill 32, which

Committee Updates

Up through last week, I held confirmation hearings for three of Governor Dunleavy's

Great hearing from a number of you this past weekend at my monthly Coffee and bipartisan support to fix these overreaching ethics statutes so that we can the topic of healthcare. Please also note that I believe there is growing

Select Committee on Legislative Ethics,

One more important - and rather odd and frustrating - item before you Saturday. Scroll down for details on this and other information in the committee

My office and I have met with dozens upon dozens of individuals and presentation (such as by the Office of Management and Budget, the Permanent

Friends and Neighbors,

If compact formatting and dark photo caption boxes fail to succinct and concise because we know your time is valuable.

If you missed Capital Quick Clip No. 2, you can catch it now! We keep these clips also be submitted by sending an email to the committee. Public testimony is available for every bill heard in a committee.

TIP #2:

If you would like to follow legislation you can:

- Sign up for email alerts at the Alaska Legislature website.
- Like the Alaska Legislature Facebook page.
- Follow us on Twitter @akleg

TIP #3:

Minutes per person, so it's best to prepare concise comments.

It’s also important to show up early for sign-in process, and please arrive 15 minutes prior to the end of the

TIP #5:

You can also be texted about upcoming hearings, news in your local area, and TIP #4:

and updates once you get a text.

TIP #4:

View this email in your browser

TIPS TO STAY IN THE LOOP

More important than ever!

- Participate in Public Testimony -
- Let Your Voice Be Heard -
- Contact Alaska’s US Senators and Congressman
- Have a Federal Issue?
- Find on-line information on your local community council
- Mat-Su Legislative Delegation,

On the legislature’s web site, you will find topics such as:

Opportunities at the local community council level:

What about serving on one of the Mat-Su

Informed that Mat-Su Borough Assessor Brad Pickett wants to hear from you. More than 1,500 applications for earthquake damage were filed with the State so

Applicants with hearing disabilities: TTY 1-855-445-7131

Online Registration:

Radon is an odorless

Online application:

Take photos prior to repairs and keep receipts for any

TIP #4:

Want to change how you receive these emails?

To unsubscribe, please click here.

Shiela.Morrison@akleg.gov

Regina.Largent@akleg.gov

Aimee Bushnell

Chair

Transportation Committee,

Judiciary Committee, Chair

2061 Westlake Ave

907-622-8963

12641 Old Glenn Hwy, Ste 201

Wasilla, Alaska 99654

3743 or 800-565-3743 in Juneau or (907) 376-3725 or (907) 622-8963 in

Here's a convenient way to track what's happening. Text any bill number (ex:

- Senator Hughes in the Capitol.

State Affairs members present.

Designee Kevin Clarkson. The hearing was a joint committee with both Judiciary and

Spoke with Tim Gallagher, the Vice