The comment period began on March 6, 2020 and More detailed information about how to participate online, via teleconference, or in person will be available Presentation to follow in 2021. Appendix E of the Draft EA. A final action on the land exchange is expected in Fall 2020 with construction jurisdiction (Department of Natural Resources Commissioner) over the Section 4(f) property is included in Park near MP 109 and MP 104 (if needed) for construction of the improvements at Windy Corner. New State Park to transportation use and DOT&PF relinquishing 14.7 acres of land within the existing in the form of a land exchange including the conversion of 26.3 acres of intertidal mudflats within Chugach be realigned to make space for the highway improvements. The modifications require right-of-way (ROW) highway includes two 12-foot lanes in one no-build alternative. The proposed considered six build alternatives plus crashes and improve traffic operations to person visits as they currently closed for in-person visits by order of the Library Director due to COVID-19. Library in Anchorage and the Gerrish Branch Library in Girdwood when the libraries are reopened for in-Juneau, AK Aviation Avenue in Anchorage, AK Public and Agency Comments, are available for review at DOT&PF Central Region Office located at Notice of Availability of Draft Environmental Assessment (EA) and Draft Programmatic Section 4(f) Seward Highway Milepost (MP) 105-107 Windy Corner. Many of us travel south on the Seward Highway to camp, fish and enjoy the beauty of the Kenai Peninsula. Seward Highway “Windy Corner” Virtual Public Hearing distributed to each state. To seats each state will have in the U.S House of Representatives and to determine how federal funds will be assistance will be made out directly to landlords or mortgage companies, not to renters or borrowers. The application period will remain open until funds are exhausted or September 30, 2020, whichever statement, and a copy of their most recent pay stub or self-employment identification. Rental or mortgage available at 2-1-1 to provide translation services over the phone. All screened applicants will be contacted to apply, residents need to call 2-1-1 and answer a series of screening questions. Interpreters are “Promoting housing stability and preventing homelessness is critical for families and our community’s well- COVID-19 Rent and Many Anchorage families are paying the price for the public health response to COVID. This program Commissioner Anderson announced that businesses that received $5,000 or less in PPP or EIDL funding On June 17, 2020, Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development (DCCED) and 501(c)(6) organizations will become eligible for CARES Act funding. Last month I reported that the Alaska District SBA Office. “Many Anchorage families are paying the price for the public health response to COVID. This program “Star” families who have lost family members in combat. It is important to remember the cost of our in Anchorage and Girdwood were cancelled due to COVID-19 related public health (virtual format with website, social media, and telephonic access as well as in-person access) to review (late March 2020 in Anchorage and Girdwood). It was my honor to recognize Verdie Bowen, Director of the Office of Veterans Affairs with a legislative I will continue to provide updates as new information becomes available. We are working on a plan for how to best help businesses navigate the pandemic. We have, however, been able to make some changes to our processes that have been helpful. First, small businesses can now apply to be eligible for CARES Act funding. This includes organizations with annual gross receipts of $5 million or less. Second, we have expanded the eligibility criteria for businesses that received PPP or EIDL funding. Third, we have added a new program for businesses that are not eligible for PPP or EIDL funding. This includes businesses that have not been in operation for at least 6 months, or that have not been in operation for at least 1 year. These changes are effective immediately. We are working on implementing these changes as quickly as possible. We will provide more information as soon as we have it. In the meantime, please visit our website for updates. As always, I’m honored to serve and represent Senate District M. Please email me Credit Union 1, call my office, visit our website, or stop by our office to share your thoughts and concerns.”